Zoning District Descriptions

(1) Agricultural-Residential District (AR). The Agricultural-Residential District is intended to encourage the continuance of agricultural uses as well as to ensure that residential development of appropriate intensities that are consonant with the suitability of land, availability of public services, accessibility to major activity centers, and transportation systems, and that are compatible with surrounding development, will occur at appropriate density to provide a healthful environment.

(2) Resort-Residential District (RR). The Resort Residential District is intended to provide for specific residential needs as well as to ensure that specific residential development of appropriate intensities consonant with the suitability of land and transportation systems, and that are compatible with surrounding development, will occur at sufficient density to provide a healthful environment.

(3) Residential-Mobile Home Park District (R-MHP). The Residential-Mobile Home Park District is intended to provide for affordable residential development that addresses residential needs as well as to ensure that specific residential development of appropriate intensities consonant with the suitability of land and transportation systems, and that are compatible with surrounding development, will occur at sufficient density to provide a healthful environment.

(4) Office/Institutional District (OI). The Office and Institutional District is intended to provide for office, institutional, educational, research, public service uses and their necessary support functions, while minimizing conflicts with adjoining land uses.

(5) Neighborhood Business District (NB). The Neighborhood Business District is intended to provide for the development of commercial and service centers that serve the daily commercial needs, are accessible by residents from the immediate neighborhood, and are of such a nature so as to minimize conflicts with surrounding residential areas.

(6) Community Business District (CB). The Community Business District is intended to provide for the development of commercial and service centers that serve communities' commercial needs, are accessible by residents from the community and surrounding neighborhoods, and are of such a nature so as to minimize conflicts with surrounding residential areas.

(7) General Business District (GB). The General Business District is intended to provide for the development of commercial and service centers that serve community, countywide, or regional commercial needs, are accessible by residents from surrounding neighborhoods, and are of such a nature so as to minimize conflicts with surrounding residential areas.
