Age Served: 10-17 Years Old

UNC Health behavioral health providers partnered with Johnston County organizations to provide private spaces and the needed technology to offer virtual services for children and adolescents.

To refer a child or adolescent: Call 984-974-1619, leave a message, and a CATCH-Johnston staff member will return your call (typically within 2-5 business days) OR medical providers using Epic can refer by selecting UNCPSYCHIATRY CATCH JOHNSTON

•Works for children seeking support with behavioral health including: Persistent sadness (2 or more weeks), Withdrawing from/avoiding social interactions, hurting oneself or talking about hurting oneself, talking about death or suicide, irritability, out of control behavior, drastic changes in mood, excessive worrying, changes in eating habits , loss of weight, difficulty concentrating.

Insurance plans are billed, and copays and deductibles apply. NC Medicaid covers the visits. Other insurance company coverage varies. It is important for parents or guardians to ask their health insurance company about coverage for behavioral telehealth care before a visit.

Johnston County's Work First program helps put welfare recipients to work. The program provides a monthly check to families. The amount of the check depends on the number of individuals in the family and the amount of family income. There must be a child under age 18 in the home.

Work First provides:

- Medicaid
- short-term training (when needed)
- transportation
- child care
- health care

Together, these services can provide a safety net that allows families to remain in the workforce and off the welfare rolls.
